TWO DIVORCES WERE GRANTED

One Couple Had Been Living Apart for Thirteen Years Past.

While the Federal grand jury has been busy below stairs compelling people to marry, the courts upstairs in the Judiciary building are busy untangling the knots. Yesterday two divorces were granted, one for a couple already separated thirteen years and one for a couple who have been living apart for three years. Other divorce cases, also, are pending.

David Crowninberg, of Honolulu, yesterday filed an amended libel for divorce against his spouse Enmalina, to whom he had been married at Wai-niha, Kauai, in 1885. The libel charges the wife with having deserted him in 1900, succumbing to the charms of one Panui, on Kauai, and living with him since. Seven years of enforced single blessedness is enough for David and he prays for relief in the divorce court. Kealohilani, against whom Alfred Kaahuna has instituted divorce proceedings, filed her answer yesterday. She admits having been one of the high contracting parties at the wedding and prays that the divorce proceedings be heard as speedily as possible, today preferred as a date.

The bonds of matrimony, which have held Abraham Nakea and Mary Nakea as one since 1882, were loosened by a decree of divorce by Judge Robinson yesterday. Abraham had instituted the suit, alleging desertion three years ago on the part of his helpmeet as his reason. One of the exhibits in the case was the marriage certificate, issued by the Rev. H. H. Parker, the paper being torn in halves.

Desertion also was responsible for the decree of divorce issued yesterday by Judge Robinson in the case of Mikuele Iliai versus Nahakuelua Iliai. The desertion was of long standing, thirteen years of it, and both parties were quite willing to stay deserted.

ECHO OF GRAND JURY RAID.

An echo of the grand jury raid on a Maunakea street gambling joint last year, in which sixty-eight Chinese gamblers were arrested and convicted, will be heard in Judge De Bolt's court today, when Ching Loy will be on trial for perjury. The evidence which Ching gave for the defense seemed far enough from what was supposed to be the truth to warrant prosecution. The jury will be selected from Geo. K. Fox, W. E. Tyrrell, Joe Davis, E. Erickson, Jonathan Shaw, F. H. Armstrong, John Duncan, Charles Mitchell, R. W. Cathcart, A. F. Cooke, R. K. Pahanu, A. D. Bolster, Chas. A. Simpson, A. J. Alencastre, J. H. Batchelor, Hiram Kolomoku, Joseph Morse, B. H. Clarke, Jas. R. Pearce, James R. Arcia, R. G. Moore, James Steiner, L. H. Sheldon, Chas. E. King.

PROSECUTION HAS A PIPE DREAM

Such Is Robertson's Opinion in the Lee Yong Bad Money Case.

The trial of Lee Yong, charged with being in possession of counterfeit gold coin, made up of an alloy of silver and copper, was continued in the Federal Court yesterday. The evidence of the deputy sheriff of Hana, Maui, who made the arrest, and of a Korean, known as "Number One," was taken. The prosecution put in as evidence a ring found upon the prisoner's person after arrest, an uncompleted ring found in his house, a block of wood with circular depressions cut in the sides and a phoney ten dollar gold piece.

Upon objections being entered by A. G. M. Robertson, attorney for the defense, United States Assistant District Attorney Dunne explained the line the prosecution intended to take and their reasons for presenting the exhibits. By the evidence of a chemist, to be put on, it was to be shown, he said, that the ring, the unfinished ring, a box of metal filings and the false coin were all of the same alloy and that the block of wood was prepared for the burnishing of coins after they had been moulded.

Robertson styled this chain of purported evidence "a very pretty pipe dream" and told the prosecuting attorney to put on any evidence to prove it was anything else.

"We didn't offer the things in evidence for nothing," retorted Dunne, "and will show you whether it's a pipe dream or not before we're through."

FEDERAL COURT ITEMS.
The case of Isabella Salamauea and Nectario J. Luiz, in the Federal court, for adultery, was yesterday, on motion of the U. S. District Attorney, continued to September 3, for arraignment.

Lam Yip and You Shee's indictment was also continued to the same date and another case against Lam Yip, for false coinage, was also continued. Kalawe Mitchell, up for adultery, was given until September 3 for trial, on motion of her attorney, George D. Gear.

Arraignments under last week's report of the grand jury are the order of business before Judge Dole this morning.

CONFIDENCE
said Lord Chatham, "is a plant of slow growth." People believe in things that they see, and in a broad sense they are right. What is sometimes called blind faith is not faith at all. There must be reason and fact to form a foundation for trust. In regard to a medicine or remedy, for example, people ask, "Has it cured others? Have cases like mine been relieved by it? Is it in harmony with the truths of modern science, and has it a record above suspicion? If so, it is worthy of confidence; and if I am ever attacked by any of the maladies for which it is commended I shall resort to it in full belief in its power to help me." On these lines

WAMPOLE'S PREPARATION has won its high reputation among medical men, and the people of all civilized countries. They trust it for the same reason that they trust in the familiar laws of nature or in the action of common things. This effective remedy is palatable as honey and contains the nutritive and curative properties of Pure Cod Liver Oil, extracted by us from fresh cod livers, combined with the Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites and the Extracts of Malt and Wild Cherry. It quickly eradicates the poisonous, disease-breeding acids and other toxic matters from the system; regulates and promotes the normal action of the organs, gives vigorous appetite and digestion, and is infallible in Prostration—following Fevers, etc., Scrofula, Influenza, Asthma, Wasting Diseases, Throat and Lung Troubles, etc. Dr. W. A. Young, of Canada, says: "Your tasteless preparation of cod liver oil has given me uniformly satisfactory results, my patients having been of all ages." It is a product of the skill and science of to-day and is successful after the old style modes of treatment have been appealed to in vain. Sold by all chemists.
